In the German language version of these Selection Statutes, this sentence deals with the subject of gender-neutral language. For the English language version, this is not relevant and therefore omitted.

Section 1 – Scope

(1) The University of Mannheim selects all students for the program Master of Comparative Business Law - M.C.B.L. with the tracks of study "Mannheim/Adelaide" and "Mannheim" individually according to its own selection process which is governed by these statutes.

(2) Sections 2 to 4 of these Selection Statutes apply to all applications regardless of whether or not there is a limited number of study places or a selection process, respectively. If, by way of derogation from section 3 subsections 4(2) and section 4 subsection 2, 3 and 5 of these statutes, no selection procedure takes place, the examination committee of this program shall decide on the exceptions and the requirements to be fulfilled as well as the equivalency or comparability of the first degrees.

Apart from that, the selection procedure for the aforementioned cases is subject to the Regulations on Admission and Enrollment of the University of Mannheim and other relevant statutes.
PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Prüfungsordnungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President’s Office (“Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats”) is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

(3) If not mentioned explicitly, these regulations apply to both tracks of study.

Section 2 – Deadlines

Applications for the fall semester shall be submitted by 31 May (definitive deadline).

Section 3 – Form of the Application

(1) The application shall be submitted electronically in the form required by the University of Mannheim; additionally, the documents listed in subsection 2 shall be sent in print format. If it is not possible to submit the application electronically due to hardship, the application may be submitted in writing or verbally on record upon request.

(2) In addition to the electronic application, the following documents shall be sent in print format:

a) a copy of the University Entrance Qualification (HZB) or its equivalent from a foreign school,
b) proofs that the admission requirements listed in section 4 and the selection criteria listed in section 7 are met,
c) the signed application for admission form,
d) a CV.

(3) The University of Mannheim may request the original or a notarized copy of the documents listed in subsection 2. Admission may be denied if the documents do not fulfill the requirements of the university; this includes the form of the documents.

(4) The proof of English proficiency according to section 4 subsection 2 e) may be submitted by 15 August of the same year of the application. Upon written request to the Student Services, the admissions committee may extend the deadline until the day of enrollment. The request including valid reasons needs to filed by 14 August.

Section 4 – Admission Requirements

(1) For the program Master of Comparative Business Law – M.C.B.L. the admission requirements depend on the selected track of study. The chosen track of study shall be stated in the application. It is not possible to change the track of study during the program; the possibility to apply for the other track of study remains unaffected.

(2) The admission requirements for the track of study “Mannheim/Adelaide” of the program Master of Comparative Business Law – M.C.B.L. are:

a) submission of the application in due time and form.
b) proof that a former admission to the same program or a different law program with generally the same content at a higher education institution within the territorial reach of the Basic Law of Germany was not rescinded due to failing the exam with no option to re-sit or due to losing eligibility to take exams. A relevant declaration has to be enclosed to the application and needs to be re-presented during enrollment, if necessary. A program with generally the same content is given if at least 70 percent of the competences to be acquired during a program coincide with the competences to be acquired in the chosen track of the Master of Comparative Business Law – M.C.B.L.

c) one of the following first degrees completed at a German or foreign university or an officially recognized public university of cooperative education (Berufsakademie):

i. a first degree in law or
ii. a first degree recognized as equivalent by the admissions committee if the applicant has completed at least 20 ECTS in law subjects. First degrees recognized as equivalent are in particular business studies, political science and social sciences.
The admissions committee may waive the requirement of proof of law contents for applicants with a first degree recognized as equivalent if the applicant can prove his or her qualification for the Master of Comparative Business Law – M.C.B.L. by different means. The first degree must correspond to at least 240 ECTS or have a standard period of study of at least 8 semesters or 4 years. If the first degree has not been completed by the end of the definitive deadline defined in section 2 due to the fact that individual examinations have not been completed and it is anticipated that the first degree will be completed in due time before the beginning of the master’s program, admission may be requested if a proof of the completion of at least 190 ECTS credits or of the admission to the first state examination in law is provided. Within the definitive deadline defined in section 2, a proof of the credits earned shall be submitted. In this case, admission is subject to the proven completion of the degree at the beginning of the master’s program at the latest. If this proof is not provided in due time, admission to the master’s program will be rescinded.

d) a letter of motivation written in English of 2 pages maximum in which the applicant’s motivation for choosing this program is stated clearly.
e) proof of sufficient English proficiency.

The following options may serve as a proof of English proficiency for the track of study “Mannheim/Adelaide”:
i. a successful attendance of a program of study held in English for at least one year;
ii. a valid certificate of the Test of English as a Foreign Language Internet Based Test (TOEFL iBT) with a score of at least 94 points, with at least 27 points in the category “Writing”, at least 23 points in the category “Speaking” and 20 points in the categories “Reading” and “Listening” or
iii. a valid certificate of the International English Language Testing System - Academic Test (IELTS) with an overall test band score of at least 7.0 and at least 7.0 in the categories “Writing” and “Speaking” as well as at least 6.5 in the categories “Reading” and “Listening”.

The following options may serve as proof of English proficiency for the track of study “Mannheim”:
i. a higher education entrance qualification acquired in an English-speaking country after at least one-year-schooling there;
ii. a successful attendance of a program of study held in English for at least one year;
iii. a valid certificate of the Test of English as a Foreign Language Internet Based Test (TOEFL iBT) with a score of at least 90 points,
iv. a valid certificate of the International English Language Testing System - Academic Test (IELTS) with a test band score of at least 6.5 or
v. an equivalent result of a test recognized as comparable. The admissions committee shall decide on the comparability of the test individually.

(3) The admission requirements for the program Master of Comparative Business Law – M.C.B.L. with the “Mannheim” track of study are the ones listed in subsection 2 under the condition that the program of study according to subsection 2 c) has been completed abroad.

(4) ¹The admissions committee may decide on waiving particular requirements of subsection 1 c) to e) and, if applicable, determines individual requirements. ²The school council shall determine directives for waiving the requirements listed in sentence 1.
Section 5 – Admissions Committee

(1) 1The school board of the School of Law and Economics appoints an admissions committee for the preparation of the admission procedure. 2The school shall appoint one member as chair of the committee. 3The admissions committee is composed of three academic staff members whose main employer is the School of Law and Economics.

(2) 1The admissions committee has a quorum if at least two of the members are present. 2Its decisions are based on a majority of votes. In the event of a tie, the vote of the chair shall decide the matter. 3Meetings of the admissions committee are not open to the public.

(3) At the end of the admission procedure, the admissions committee reports its experiences to the school council of the School of Law and Economics and makes suggestions on the further development of the admissions procedure.

(4) The admissions committee may consult the personnel with subject-specific competencies for their opinion; however, these persons do not have the right to vote.

(5) The admissions committee may assign its tasks to the chair of the committee for all regular cases.

Section 6 – Selection Process

(1) If only a certain number of study places are available for the Master of Comparative Law – M.C.B.L., the number of total admissions to the program is limited. If there are more applicants than study places, a selection process takes place.

(2) 1According to section 6 subsection 1(2), the admissions committee shall select the candidates to be admitted from all applicants who fulfill the requirements of section 4 based on the selection criteria according to section 7. 2The President shall decide on the candidates to be admitted on the basis of the admissions committee’s recommendations.

Section 7 – Selection Criteria

(1) 1The following criteria shall be taken into account for the decision of the admissions committee:

a) the final grade or the current average grade in case the applicant has not finished his or her first degree, yet, according to section 4 subsection 2 c) or section 4 subsection 3 in connection with section 4 subsection 2 c).

The current grade average shall be calculated by the institution at which the applicant is currently enrolled. If the institution does not calculate the grade average, this may be done by the University of Mannheim if the applicant submits the necessary documents by the deadline according to section 2.
In this case, the applicant shall prove with adequate documents that it was not possible for him or her to acquire the calculation of the average grade by the relevant institution through no fault of his or her own.

b) the letter of motivation according to section 4 subsection 2 d).

c) relevant professional activities, stays abroad as well as relevant awards and volunteer work.

d) extraordinary academic achievements exceeding those expected of the first degree and documentation of such achievements.

2On the basis of the aforementioned criteria, all applicants are ranked according to a system the admissions committee agreed on prior to the admission.

(3) In cases where several applicants hold equal rank, section 20 subsection 3 of the Act on the Awarding of University Places of the Land of Baden-Württemberg (HVVO) applies.
